Eric Jenkins Joins MainStream Management as Managing Director

CHICAGO (September 19, 2011) – MainStream Management, LLC, a global professional services firm that specializes in management consulting for middle-market companies, today announced the addition of Eric Jenkins as Managing Director to lead the company's presence in Chicago. Mr. Jenkins has over 20 years of experience in financial advisory services including reorganization, restructuring, capital raising, buy and sell side advisory, merger integration, and interim management services. Mr. Jenkins has served as a financial advisor to institutional investors and organizations in a variety of industries and sectors including manufacturing, technology, consumer products, telecommunications, professional services, and real estate. As Managing Director, Mr. Jenkins provides guidance to creditors, investors, and debtors maneuvering through strategic, operational, and financial challenges.

"Eric is an important addition to our firm expanding the breadth of our capabilities in the financial restructuring practice and our geographical presence," said Joseph Patten, Managing Partner.

Prior to joining MainStream, Mr. Jenkins was founder and Managing Director for Paradigm Capital Group, a financial advisory firm, and Managing Director for Deloitte & Touche's Financial Advisory Services practice. Prior to joining Deloitte & Touche, Mr. Jenkins was Restructuring Officer for publicly traded Resource Phoenix and held various senior level positions for Bank of America in its investment banking unit having served as advisor in raising over $3 billion in capital and over $2 billion in strategic transactions.

Mr. Jenkins earned his Master of Science degree from Miami University and his Masters of Business Administration degree with the highest honors from the University of Illinois. He is a member of the Turnaround Management Association (TMA) and the Association of Insolvency and Restructurings Advisors (AIRA).
