

MAINSTREAM MANAGEMENT

Creating Value, Driving Results

MainStream Management is a privately held professional services firm that specializes in crisis management, performance improvement, and transaction services for privately held and publicly traded middle market companies.

Who We Are

Our team of over 90 proven executives and consultants offer knowledge, maturity and judgment that has provided unparalleled results for our clients. For over a decade, Mainstream Management's success has resulted from its ability to create value for clients facing difficult challenges. This has been accomplished by creating and deploying thoughtful solutions. Our firm has worked across multiple industries involving a broad set of strategic, operational and financial challenges. Our intensive, individualized focus has allowed us to solve a myriad of business challenges while creating significant value for parties with a vested economic interest.

What We Do

MainStream thrives in the high intensity, crisis environments that underperforming organizations face. Our team provides solutions unique to individual situations ranging from traditional business issues to highly complex operational or financial restructurings. Our approach brings a sense of urgency and objectivity to the development and execution of new strategies. Our disciplined process includes assessing and rapidly identifying financial and operational challenges, and developing a plan of action that will increase enterprise value. MainStream's presence helps troubled companies buy the time needed to work with lenders, creditors, and equity investors to regain their confidence in the current operating climate.

Our Customers

Our clients are creditors, corporate executives, private equity investors, and professionals who have either a debt position, an equity interest, or who serve as advisers to our clients. While the challenges of each client are unique, the common thread running through all of our engagements is the recognized need to restore value through sound management and performance improvement. MainStream understands that need. Our team focuses on creating value and driving results to ensure the optimal outcome for all constituents.

Our Leadership Team

Our management team consists of executives with broad business experience, both in consulting and industry, with an orientation toward strategic, operational, and financial management. With a unique blend of operating and consulting experience, our team consists of business executives with direct responsibility for program and project implementation and business development. Our assignments are led by multiple managing directors at the most senior level of the organization. Each has first-hand managerial experience with C-level responsibility, providing clients with hands-on, direct experience.

Why MainStream

MainStream Management differentiates itself on five principles. The first is our experience as owners and executives of middle market business enterprises. The second is our exemplary track record in creating value for our clients. The third is the intensive, C-level experience and involvement provided by our principals for our clients. In addition to our operational expertise, the fourth ingredient is our capital markets experience. Finally, our structure allows us to deliver unparalleled and personalized service at an attractive price point.

Locations

MainStream works from eight offices strategically located throughout the country, including New York, Philadelphia, Washington DC, Knoxville, Denver, Houston, Phoenix, and Cedar Rapids.
